June 2, 1928.

COLLIERS.

Benjamine T. Collier was Administrator of the estate of James W. Collier. (Pike County Ordinary's office Minute Book A, Page 60, Ordinary's Court Oct. 6, 1856, Joseph C. Beckhm, Ordinary).

Benjamin T. Collier was deposed as Administrator with will annexed for managing the estate of James W. Collier. (Ordinary's Court Pike County, Georgia, October Term, 1858, Ordinary's Minutes.)

John T. Collier was the executor of the estate of James Pearson, (Oct, 3, 1864, Pike County Ordinary's office Book A, Page 427).

OObediah C. Gibson was attorney residing at Thomaston, Georgia, along about the year 1850 and handled many cases all over several counties adjacent, and for this gentleman Robert Marshall Collier named one of his sons, Obediah Gibson Collier. This boy died before he was grown up and is buried near the Thomas Bass Greene place 3 miles southwest of The Rock, Georgia, on the highway from The Rock to Thomaston, Georgia, or at the _____ Methodist Church on Route 3 highway 3 or 4 miles north of Thomaston. (Taken from Ordinary's Minute Books of Pike County, A. B. C.)

Records regarding Benjamin T. Collier's administration on the estate of James W. Collier appears on Pages 524-499 of the Ordinary's Minute Book, Pike County, Georgia.

Robert Marshall Collier appears to have been administrator of the estate of Wilson Whatley. (Ordinary's Minute Book C, Page 212-218-341-383-389.)

James W. Collier appears to have been Administrator of the Williams estate. (Ordinary's Minute Book C, Page 135-136, Pike County, Georgia.)

Greene Hardaway Collier's will appears on Page 368, Pike County Ordinary's record, Will Book D.